THOMAS SIMMS

Respectfully informs his friends and the public that he has returned to his old stand on Prince Street, where he has for sale, as usual, a general Assortment of Groceries.

He has just received some Rhode Island Greening Apples, which he will dispose of by the barrel or bushel.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on the 29th of October last, a negro man slave named BOB, about 20 years of age, five feet nine inches high straight limbed and well formed; said slave hath an impediment in his speech which prevents his readily replying to a question. He commonly wears ear-rings. He took with him a variety of good clothing, a description of which is unnecessary, as it is probable he has changed them. He has been frequently seen about town since he absconded, and in all probability is now secreted by his mother, Winney Brown, formerly the slave of Mr. JOHN MUIR, late of this town, but now said to be free. The above reward will be paid for securing said Negro BOB, in any goal, and a further reward of TEN DOLLARS for the discovery of those who have been accessory to his abscondment.

Can any of your vesse's, &c. are forwarded at their peril, not to take him away.

ROBERT B. JAMESSON.

ELEGANT EDITION

The HOLY BIBLE.

PROPOSALS

For Printing by Subscription, (in four handsome octavo volumes)

THE HOLY BIBLE,

CONTAINING

The Old and New Testaments.

CONDITIONS.

It shall be printed on a superfine wove paper,

with an elegant new type.

The price to subscribers will be Two Dollars per vol. in boards, or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, handsomely bound and lettered.

To those who subscribe for several copies, a discount will be made, proportioned to the number subscribed for.

THE advantage of having this invaluable Book printed on a large type, and at the same time, in portable and convenient volumes, appears so evident, that the encouragement necessary to warrant an undertaking of such magnitude, is confidently expected; a portable volume would often be taken up, in a moment of leisure, when the size of a large, unwieldy folio, would operate as an apology for leaving it unopened; in this way, small portions of time would be profitably employed, which might otherwise be totally lost. In large families a Bible in volumes, affording an opportunity for several to read at once, may sometimes be peculiarly convenient; it seems superfluous to add much on this subject—suffice it to say, that no reasonable expense or pains shall be spared, to render this edition of the Holy Scriptures both correct and elegant.

The above work is in press, and will be finished about the end of the present year.

Subscriptions received by R.

and J. Gray, King Street, where a specimen of the paper and printing may be seen.

AN ACCOUNT OF LOUISIANA.

Being an abstract of documents in the Offices of the Departments of State and of the Treasury.

Lawyers and Costs of the Courts and their Officers.

The number of lawyers is small, not exceeding three or four attorneys. Their fees are small. Suits are carried on in writings called escritos, which may be drawn up by the parties themselves, if they please, but they must be presented by the escribano or notary or who is the keeper of the records of the court.

The fees of the judges are twenty five cents for every half signature or flourish, (which is usually fixed on common occasions,) fifty cents for every whole signature, and two dollars and three fourths for every attendance, as at a sale or the taking of evidence.

The fees of the Abogado, or person consulted by the judges on law points, are twelve and an half cents for every leaf of which the process consists, and four dollars for every point of law cited. Those of the attorney, when employed, are sixty-two and a half cents for a simple petition or escrito, but if it should be necessary to read a process, in order to form his petition, and it should require much time and labour, he is compensated in proportion, besides twelve and an half cents per leaf for perusing the papers. For attendance on any business he is allowed one dollar and fifty cents for the assistance of two and an half hours. The notary has fifty cents for each decree or order of the judge, twenty-five cents for a notification in his office, and fifty cents for one out of it, but within the city; one dollar and seven-eighths for every attendance of two and a half hours on business, and twenty-five cents additional for every leaf of paper written by him.

A counsellor or two have sometimes resided at New-Orleans, but being generally found obnoxious to the officers of the government, they have not continued there. The counsellor values his own services, and in general exacts large sums. The attorney generally receives from the party who employs him more than is allowed by law.

Crimes, Criminal Jurisprudence, and Punishments.

In cases of petty crimes the cognizance of the proper court may be said to be final and without appeal; and most commonly such causes are decided in a summary way. With respect to crimes of a deeper dye more solemnity is used. A person skilled in the laws is always nominated by the court to defend the accused. The trial is not public; but examinations and depositions in writing are taken privately by the auditor at any time most convenient to himself, at which nevertheless the counsel of the accused is admitted to be present. He has also every kind of privilege granted to him in making his defence. Such suits are generally very tedious and expensive, when he is wealthy. The condemned is entitled to an appeal as in civil cases, provided he gives security for the payment of the future costs. There appears, however, to be a virtual appeal in every condemnation, because a stay of execution takes place until the confirmation of the sentence returns from St. Jago de Cuba, where there is a grand tribunal established consisting of five judges, before whom counsellors plead as in our courts.

Crimes of great atrocity are very rare. Murder by stabbing seems to be confined to the Spanish soldiers and sailors. The terror of the magistrate's power restrains assaults, batteries, riots, &c.

Punishments are generally mild. They mostly consist of imprisonment and payment of costs, sometimes the stocks. White men, not military, are rarely degraded by whipping; and in no case do any fines go into the public treasury. Murder, Arson, and aggravated robbery of the king's treasury or effects, are punished with death. Robbery of private persons to any amount is never punished with death, but by restitution, imprisonment, and sometimes enormous costs. Crimes against the king's revenue, such as contraband trade, are punished with hard labour for life, or a term of years, on board the galleys, in the mines, or on the public works.

Learning.

There are no colleges, and but one public school, which is at New-Orleans. The masters of this are paid by the king. They teach the Spanish language only. There are a few private schools for children. Not more than half of the inhabitants are supposed to be able to read and write, of whom not more than two hundred perhaps are able to do it well. In general the learning of the inhabitants does not extend beyond those two arts; though they seem to be endowed with a good natural genius, and an uncommon facility of learning whatever they undertake.

The Church.

The Clergy consists of a Bishop, who does not reside in the province, and whose salary of four thousand dollars is charged on the revenue of certain bishopricks in Mexico and Cuba; two canons having each a salary of six hundred dollars; and twenty five curates, five for the city of New-Orleans, and twenty for as many country parishes, who receive each from three hundred and sixty, to four hundred and eighty dollars a year. Those salaries, except that of the bishop, together with an allowance for sacristans and chapel expences, are paid by the treasury of New-Orleans, and amount annually to thirteen thousand dollars.

There is also at that place a Convent of Ursulines, to which is attached about a thousand acres of land, rented out in three plantations. The nuns are now in number not more than ten or twelve, and are all French. There were formerly about the same number of Spanish ladies belonging to the order; but they retired to Havana, during the period when it was expected that the province would be transferred to France. The remaining nuns receive young ladies as boarders and instruct them in reading, writing, and needle-work.

They have always acted with great propriety, and are generally respected and beloved throughout all the province. With the assistance of an annual allowance of six hundred dollars for the treasury, they always support and educate twelve female orphans.

Of the Officers of Government.

The officers who are merely judicial have been already mentioned, and therefore some of them will be altogether omitted in this place. The executive officers appointed by the governor, for each division of the province, and called Commandants, are generally taken from the army, or the militia. When the settlement is small, some respectable character is appointed to the civil command, and the militia officers has the direction of military matters. Where there is a garrison the commandant is sub delegate of the Intendant, and draws upon him for all expences incurred. In that case he has the charge of all matters relating to the revenue, within his district.

The duty of commandants is to superintend the police, preserve the peace of the district, examine the passports of travellers, and to suffer no strangers to settle within the limits of their command, without regular leave obtained from government. They are to prevent smuggling, to certify that all lands petitioned for by the inhabitants, are vacant before they are granted, and when required, put the owner in possession. They are besides notaries public, and in their offices it is necessary to register all sales of land and slaves, and even to make the contracts for those purposes, before them. They act as sheriffs, levy executions on property, attend and certify the sale, and collect the proceeds. They also take inventories of the property of intestates. By an ordinance of Baron Carondelet, Syndics are established every three leagues, who are subordinate to the commandant, decide small causes, and have the police of roads, levies, travellers and negroes.

The officers of the general government are the following: Besides his judicial powers, the Governor is chief of the army and militia, and the head of the civil government. He is the president of the Cabildo, or Provincial Council. He appoints and removes at pleasure the commandants of districts. He appoints the officers of the militia who are nevertheless commissioned by the king, and he recommends military officers for preferment. He is superintendent of Indian affairs. He promulgates ordinances for the government and improvement of the province; but he has no power to assess taxes upon the inhabitants without their consent. Until the year 1793, he possessed the sole power of granting lands, but it then passed into the hands of the intend.

The Cabildo is an hereditary council of twelve, chosen originally from the most wealthy and respectable families. The governor presides over their meetings. Their office is very honorable, but it is acquired by purchase. They have a right to represent, and even to remonstrate to the governor, in respect to the interior government of the province. The police of the city is under their controul and direction. In it they regulate the admission of physicians and surgeons to practice. Two members of the Cabildo serve by turn monthly, and take upon themselves the immediate superintendence of markets, streets, bridges, and the general police of the city. This council distributes among its members several important offices, such as Aguazil Mayor, or high sheriff, Alcalde Provincial, procurer general, &c. The last mentioned is a very important charge. The person who holds it is not merely the king's attorney, but an officer peculiar to the civil law. He does not always prosecute; but after conviction he indicates the punishment annexed by law to the crime, and which may be, and is mitigated by the court. Like the chancellor in the English system, he is the curator and protector of orphans, &c. and finally, he is the expounder of the law, the defender of the privilages belonging to the town, province or colony, and the accuser of every public officer that infringes them.

The Cabildo is also vested with a species of judicial authority, for which and for a further elucidation of its constitution, and the functions of the officers springing from it, see the appendix No. 1.

The Intendant is chief of the departments of finance and commerce, and exercises the judicial powers already mentioned. He is entirely independent of the Governor, and no public monies can be issued without his express order. The land office is under his direction.

The Contrador, Treasurer, and Intervenor, are officers subordinate to the Intendant. The first has four clerks under him, and keeps all accounts and documents reflecting the receipts and expenditure of the revenue, and is therefore a check upon the Intendant. The treasurer is properly no more than a cashier, and is allowed one clerk. The Intervenor superintends all public purchases and bargains. The administration is also subordinate to the Intendant, and with a number of inferior officers, manages every thing respecting the custom house. Every clerk in these offices receives his commission from the king.

The Auditor is the king's counsel, who is to furnish the Governor with legal advice in all cases of judicial proceedings, whether civil or military.

The assessor's functions are similar to those of the auditor, and are properly applicable to the Intendant's department.

Both of the officers last mentioned are also the counsellors of some of the other tribunals, as before intimated.

A secretary of the government and another of the intendancy.

A surveyor general.

A harbor master.

A store keeper, who takes charge of all public moveable property.

An interpreter of the French and Spanish languages, and a number of other inferior officers.

All appointments in the province with a salary of more than thirty dollars per month, are made by the King, and most of those with a lower salary by the Governor or Intendant, as belongs to their respective departments. There are no officers chosen by the people.

The salaries and perquisites of the principal officers are as follow:

	p. salary.	p. perquisites.
Governor annually,	6,000	2,000
Intendant,	4,000	none.
Auditor,	2,000	2,000
Contrador,	2,000	none.
Assessor,	1,200	1,000
Treasurer,	1,200	none.
Administrador,	1,200	none.
Sec. of government,	600	2,000

The commandants of districts receive each 100 dollars from the king annually, unless they are possessed of a military employment or pension.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25.

Extra from the Log Book of the sch'r Eleanor, Capt. Barry, arrived yesterday, from Turk's Island.

Left at Turk's Island, Oct. 27, sloop Sally, capt. Even, of Norwalk, from Antigua, and for New-York in two days.

Sch'r Hope, captain Roath, of Norwich, from Antigua and for N. York, in two days.

Capt. Luton, of sch'r —, from Montserrat, for Edenton, in two days.

The sloop Black Bird, of Bermuda, capt. Patton, for N. York, in two days.

Came out in company with the brig Neptune, of N. York, from Barbadoes and Dominico, and for N. York.

Nov. 14, spoke the sch'r Volunteer of Frederickburg, 20 days from Martinico. The captain informed that a few days previous to his sailing from Martinico, the republican sch'r Experiment, formerly belonging to the U. States, captured and brought into Martinico, a Sloop of War brig belonging to his Britannic Majesty.

The following article is taken from a paper received by the Eleanor.

St. VINCENT, September 24.

A flag of truce arrived her yesterday, from Guadeloupe, with 69 English prisoners, consisting chiefly of passengers and sailors taken in merchant vessels.

We are sorry to learn, that amongst the enemy's captures are three of our Guineaman, vessels Barton and L'Agreeable, and brig Suzannah. The L'Agreeable mounts 22 guns and was nearly ready to sail as a privateer, when the flag of truce sailed from thence.

We have also to lament the loss of the Government sloop Desborough; this vessel was manned with 27 men and officers from his Majesty's sloop of war Drake; she was taken by the Flebustier of 6 guns and 60 men. Lieutenant —, who commanded the Desborough, was severely wounded, and was obliged to go below to have his wounds dressed; but as the surgeon was performing his duty, a blood thirsty rascal went down and put an end to Lieut. —'s existence, by cutting him through the head with a sword.

A few days ago an expedition was fitted out of Guadeloupe against Antigua, and had actually got under weigh, but on the appearance of the British frigate, captain O'Brien, the enemy returned and boats in a hasty retreat, and the understanding Island form.

We understand that the following Guadeloupe vessel of Barbadoes; so brig Susan, able, from Bermuda; brig Hawke, prize to the Bermuda; ship Barton, —, Hal-turned and anchored. Captain O'Brien sent his boats in and cut out three of their finest vessels, and thereby prevented the expedition. We understand the privateers men sent from this Island formed part of the expedition.

We understand a French privateer has been at anchor for some days at Ballicaux, and that Lieut. Brown is preparing to go in the Nereus to attack her.

The following is a list of prizes carried into Guadeloupe since the 2d ult. viz.—Nancy, privateer of four guns and 33 men belonging to Barbadoes; schooner William from Newfoundland; brig Susanah, from Africa, 103 slaves; L'Agreeable, from do. 240 do; schooner —, from Bermuda; schooner Flying Fish, from Trinidad; brig Hawke, from Barbadoes; Dutch brig, prize to the Cayenne; sloop and schooner from Bermuda; Desborough, tender to the Drake; ship Barton, 170 slaves from Africa; schooner —, Halifax.

A most invidious attack has been made in the Frederick Town Advocate, and copied into most of the democratic prints, tending to throw reflections on Mr. Joseph Lewis, one of the Representatives in Congress, for the State of Virginia. Since the setting of the present Congress we cannot turn over a democratic page without disgust, at the vulgar invective, indiscriminately heaped upon the members. Duane, began, and on recovering from the astonishment and confusion, he was thrown into by the manly and energetic speech of Mr. Purviance, he found that "he wanted the compensating grace of a mellow Orator." The democrats, consider this a sublime expression, and it passes current with them as a refinement upon the English language. In obedience to this signal, from the mellow headed "organ of the public will," the inferior engines of abuse went to work.—Amongst this description we find a contemptible and obscure little "Advocate" of faction, issuing in Frederick Town abusing Mr. Joseph Lewis. The stile, and manner in which this dirty work is done, must disgust even the party it is meant to serve. We should not have noticed this outrage upon decency, had we not found the Expositor industriously copying the filth. Mark the mode in which these sort of jobs are done, by the junior Demo's.

"This Lewis," says a supposed letter to the Editor, "is I do assure you a mere daub; a miserable brawler of nonsense, he cannot even follow with common ability. I wish his constituents had been here, they would have been sick enough of Joseph Lewis."

Passing over the channel through which the invective is issued, we shall join in heartily wishing that Mr. Lewis's constituents had heard his speech on the Louisiana treaty, and his refusal to vote away their money, in a purchase of a barren title to a barren country. To such of them as were debarred of that satisfaction, and, by way of removing a little "daub" of democratic dirt, we subjoin Mr. Lewis's speech—as taken by the reporter.

Mr. Joseph Lewis, jr. (Virginia) On a question so important as the present, I am desirous that my vote may be accompanied by the reasons which influence it. Like the gentleman from N. Y. I have objections to the resolution on your table on constitutional grounds; but my objections do not go to all the points contended for by that gentleman.

I shall confine myself principally to the preference given in the ports of the ceded territory to the vessels of France and Spain and their colonies, which in my opinion, is in direct opposition to the express words of the constitution. In the 9th sec. of the 1st art. of the constitution, it is declared, "That no preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue, to the ports of one state over those of another; nor shall vessels bound to or from one state, be obliged to enter, clear or pay duties in another."

Yet in the face of this article, the treaty with the French republic does give to the ports of the ceded territory, a decided preference over every other port in the United States. I will take the liberty of reading to the committee that part of the treaty to which I allude: [He read the 7th article.]

It does appear to me that the stipulation that I have just read, is an infraction of the constitution—but I may be mistaken—I wish the honorable mover of the resolution or some other gentleman would remove my doubts upon this point. I declare with the greatest sincerity, that I came into the house this day with a mind perfectly unbiassed, and with a determination to vote for the resolution, if my constitutional doubts were removed; as yet I have heard no argument to induce the smallest change in my first impressions.—In order to reconcile the treaty to the constitution, my honorable colleague has said, that the preference given to France and Spain, was not a commercial preference, but it must be considered as a part of the purchase money for the country of Louisiana.

I differ very widely from my colleague, and I must confess sir, that I did not expect an assertion of this kind would have been risked by the gentleman. The treaty stipulates that a certain sum of money shall be paid by the United States for the ceded territory—so far it is in my opinion constitutional—but it also stipulates that certain commercial advantages shall be given in the ports of Louisiana to the vessels of France and Spain and their colonies, which I repeat again is unconstitutional. (Mr. Randolph rose to explain.)

Mr. Chairman, I did not mistake the gentleman—I understand him now, as I did before, and so far from having a single doubt removed on this subject, the opinions which I generally entertained have been strengthened by the debate; I contend sir, that the treaty does give to the ports of the ceded territory, great advantage over all other ports of the United States. Advantages not only unconstitutional but unjust. If the vessels of France and Spain and their colonies are permitted to enter the ports of the ceded territory on the same terms with American vessels, and the same advantages are denied to all other foreign vessels, but subject them to very heavy discriminating duties and tonnage it follows as a certain consequence that the carrying trade will be completely monopolized by those nations, to the very great injury of the Atlantic states, who will be obliged to receive the produce and manufactures of France & Spain and their colonies, through the ports of the ceded territory, subject to a number of additional incidental charges; or to pay the discriminating duties & tonnage upon all foreign vessels, coming directly into their ports laden with such produce or manufactures—for these reasons Mr. Chairman I shall vote against the resolution.

The Stockholders of the Little River Turnpike Company,

Are requested to meet at the Court House in Alexandria, to-morrow evening at early candle light, for the purpose of deliberating on the selection of five suitable persons, to be voted for, as directors at the ensuing election. The object of the meeting, interesting in its nature, both to the Stockholders and the Town, has acquired an additional importance, from the manner and tendency of certain proceedings, which have lately taken place relative to the concerns of said company. The attention which those proceedings merit, together with the magnitude of the trust, to be confided to the directors, it is hoped will procure a punctual and full meeting.

The proximity of the election (which is to be held on the 5th of next month,) requires promptitude in the adoption of preparatory measures.

For the Alexandria Daily Advertiser.

The following sketch of an estimate will show the immense saving of distance, and consequently of time, by having the Turnpike Road by the Court House instead of Centerville.

It is supposed the number of barrels of flour brought annually to Alexandria, from the west of Little River, amount to one hundred and twenty thousand, and this may be expected to increase, 120,000

These at twelve barrels to each waggon require one thousand trips, and if three miles be saved in each trip in coming, and as much in returning, there will be a saving of six thousand miles in one year to the transporters. In twenty years the saving will amount, in miles, to 120,000

Supposing a waggon to travel three miles an hour, the saving in time to the people employed, will exceed four years in the twenty. To the merchants this matter is referred for their computation, who too are requested to consider, how the trade to Alexandria can be benefited by putting the country people somewhat out of their way, in coming to them with their products, as well as all those who have intercourse from Winchester, &c. to this town.

To the friends of the route of the Turnpike Road, as established by the board, the names of the following gentlemen are presented as fully qualified, for executing the duties of President and Directors of the Little River Turnpike Company.

Leven Powell, President.
Charles Simms,
John T. Ricketts,
Thomas Swann,
William Payne, } Directors.

While our coasts, from the boundaries of the British dominions on the north, to those of the Spanish on the south, are covered with the cruisers and armed vessels of the belligerent powers, while our vessels are stopped and plundered, and their commanders scourged, like negro slaves, at the will of the ruffians who plundered them; while our commerce is interrupted and our ships chased up to our very quays and wharfs by vessels but lately sheltered in our harbours; we look about and ask, "Where is our defence? "Where is our hope of relief? "Where is there any thing that has even a tendency to give hope of relief? We, for our parts, see little or nothing of the kind. Not a broadside are those free-booters likely to get, but from the newspaper presses, at which we assure the public, they laugh very heartily. It is true indeed that the Secretary of the Treasury has, in his report laid before the House of Representatives on the 25th of October, put in an article on the head of our maritime defence, which cannot fail to give the Economists all the comfort they deserve—a kind of a blank—where a Navy ought to be, but is not.

"In the middle a place where the party —WAS NOT." But instead of it the following record (a record never to be erased from the archives of America) of our folly and feebleness:—"For the Naval Establishment, calculated on the supposition that two frigates and four smaller vessels shall be kept in commission, 650,000 dollars."

TWO FRIGATES AND FOUR SMALLER VESSELS! Behold, Americans, Two Frigates and Four Small Vessels is the provision made for the defence of your coasts and commerce; not to mention the Barbary pirates—for the defence of an extensive coast, and of a commerce, the duties on which produce a nett revenue, as stated in that Report, of upwards of Ten Millions of dollars for the last year.

"BE JUST AND FEAR NOT," Americans. Let not party rancour poison your minds, or warp your integrity; but hold a fair scale, in every thing, between the two parties who stand for your judgment. The Federal Government provided a Navy, which would have effectually repelled those insolent invaders. The Anti-Federalists has destroyed it—the consequence is before you. Now they talk in the language of defiance to Spain, (justly no doubt), and if they are driven to put their threats in execution, Where are their ships?—Why, growing in the woods; from which they must be cut and built at a much greater expense. Let them! And so far from imitating their example, we will never for the purposes of faction, say stop. No: rather than see the country reduced to the state of abject defenceless nakedness to which the economy of those gentlemen has brought it down in this respect, we would sound the trumpet of alarm, and call, as loudly as we were able, every American to put his hand to the axe and the mallet.—Nay, we would do that which would be much more repugnant to our principles: we would call upon them to support in that work of glory and honour, those very men who had so mismanaged, but who, having got what they wanted by that mismanagement, were at last willing to change the course of their counsels so far, rather than let the country be utterly undone. (Courier.)

PUBLIC SALE.

SOME of the Legatees of the late Mr. William Triplett, having objected to a division of the decedent's estate, which he recommended in his will to be done, we, therefore, as executors, will expose to public sale, at Round Hill, his late residence, on Wednesday the 14th of December next, ALL THE ESTATE, real and personal, of which the died seized.

The ROUND HILL Tract, containing nearly four hundred acres, is a most desirable and healthy situation, on which is built a brick house one story high, fifty four feet long, and eighteen feet wide; four rooms on the lower floor, with a fire place and closets in each, and a passage eight feet wide; three rooms upstairs, two of them with fire places, a good cellar and kitchen under the house; a framed barn, dairy, stables for ten horses, carriage house, two corn houses, one granary, meat house, and quarters, well calculated for the accommodation of thirty negroes;
an apple orchard of excellent fruit, and a garden paled in. This farm is well known to be one of most productive in the county, and now in a high and improved state, being well fenced and divided into convenient fields for farming; there are eighty acres of timothy meadow, producing from eighty to one hundred tons a year; fifty acres of new meadow may be made and watered at a small expense. The crops of small grain have generally been from 500 to 600 bushels, and of corn 300 barrels.

Near this lies another Tract of about four hundred acres, heavily timbered with pine, oak and hickory, with good springs and fine high, healthy situations for building; the post road, from north to south, passes thro' those two tracts, which affords two excellent stands for raverus, and also for tan yards, being not more than eight miles from Alexandria and sixteen from Washington.

Also, another Tract lying on the main branch of Tiltot's creek, about two miles from Colchester, on which Mr. William Triplett now lives, containing upwards of 100 acres; the building is a good farm house, in a healthy situation, a good orchard and fine water.

At the same time and place will be sold, thirty valuable SLAVES, men, women and children; some plate, a watch, books, (among which are some valuable classics) household furniture, and beds of a good quality, bed and table linen, kitchen furniture, a coach and harness,
one wagon and cart, farming utensils, horses,
mule, one yoke of excellent oxen, cattle, sheep,
ogs, &c.

The terms of sale for the land are,
one third payable on the day of sale, (at which time deeds will be made the purchaser) one third in six months, and the other third in 12 months, with interest from the day of sale. A deed of trust will be taken to secure the two last payments. The Negroes will be sold at 12 months credit, and the other property at a credit of nine months: for all sums over twenty dollars bonds, with approved security will be required of the purchasers.

Major George Triplett, on the re-mises, will show the land, with a correct plat survey lately made by Col. Wm. Payne, County Surveyor, at the instance of the executors. The title papers will be exhibited on the day of sale by CHAS. LITTLE,
AND
GEORGE TRIPLETT, } Executors.

The sale will continue from day to day, until the property is disposed of.

LECTURES.

IN a science so various and complicated as the present system of the LAW, nothing which tends to facilitate the progress of the student can be deemed useless. It is with this view that the subscriber proposes to deliver, the ensuing winter, (and if suitable encouragement offers, annually)

A course of Lectures,
On Education, Belles Letters, Composition, History and Law.

The subscriber means to divide the same into two distinct courses. The object of this division is, that such young gentlemen who are designed to fill stations in active life, distinct from those of the learned professions, may resort to that course of lectures which will be delivered without a relaxation to the LAW, which will be the sole foundation of the other.

If the plan should meet with success, the subscriber contemplates furnishing, next winter, a a handsome library, for the use of such gentlemen
as feel desirous of patronizing the undertaking.

The municipal laws of each state will then be provided—That students at law from any part of the United States will find it their interest to repair to the metropolis to pursue their studies;
where they will have the advantage of attending the congressional debates.

The facility of access which the houses of congress offer, is a circumstance peculiarly advangeous to the student, and the youthful pleader, not only from the light which is thrown in the course of debate on controverted questions of law;
not only to be derived from witnessing the eager contests, the vigorous attacks, the wary methods of defence, exhibited by men of the most composition talents, rivals alike in abilities and interest; but especially from this consideration, that the speakers are, in general, exempted by the nature of their functions, from those defects to which pleaders are peculiarly exposed.

The Lectures will commence the first week in December next, and continue until twelve distinct Lectures in each course shall have been delivered.

The terms may be known by application personally, or by letters post paid to

The Subscriber
Intending to remove to Alexandria, will dispose of the lease of the property he now occupies, situated in Fairfax county, on the main road leading to and from George Town, Alexandria, and Washington city, half way between Alexandria, and Leesburg, and 15 miles from George Town, well known by the name of the White House at the Long Glades. This property consists of about 200 acres of cleared land, with a large quantity of excellent meadow; a commodious dwelling house, stables and other necessary houses, the whole well calculated for a Public House, and is in point of situation equal to any in the State.
